

Celebrating frontier heritage

Frontier Days is Fort Dodge's largest annual celebration and is traditionally held the first weekend in June. This year's festivities will be June 5-6, mainly at the Fort Museum, just west of Friendship Haven.

However, for many people the highlight of the festival is the parade down Central Avenue on Saturday morning. But Frontier Days also features musicians and other live entertainment, a variety of food and craft vendors and much more. Admission is a $5 button that is good for both days.
